Take care of your health: mankind will take care of your fame.

as always
Yours &c.

W. Lloyd Garrison
Boston
Mass, B. Rush Plumly

unswerving faith and love — to you and yours,
to Wm Phillips and Wm Young,
and C. C. Burleigh and Robert Purvis, and Jane and Lucretia Mott and Mary Grew, and through them, & you, to that noble company of Abolitionists, for whom,
this Revolution is preparing historic
recognition,

Private

Philad^{a}. Sept^{r}. 1st 1861

98

My dear Mr Garrison

I am going to the black man's war.

If I fall, I fall for him, who is, to day, the Representative of the oppressed humanity.

Some stray bullet
may translate me, therefore,
I send this line, – my Good-bye, my blessing, the assurance of my